

Redundancy factsheet

Information for employees

Department
for Work &
Pensions

Being made redundant is challenging. But there is support and information available to help you find a new job, understand what benefits you can claim and provide you with useful sources of information.

If you need this factsheet in braille, large print or audio, please contact us by email at rrs.enquiries@dwp.gov.uk

Where can I find help to get another job?

The Jobhelp website provides a wide range of jobsearch help and advice, including information about working in critical sectors and the latest vacancies.

Visit www.jobhelp.dwp.gov.uk to find out more.

If you are disabled, there may be extra help available, for example, Access to Work which helps people with disabilities at work. Visit www.gov.uk/access-to-work for more information.

To find out more about the help available email rrs.enquiries@dwp.gov.uk Please include your postcode in the email.

Use the free 'Find a job' service (available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week). Go to www.gov.uk/jobsearch to create and manage your own account as well as tailoring your job search preferences to suit the jobs you are looking for.

You can filter your "find a Job" search to focus on employers who have registered to the Disability Confident scheme and are committed to employing people with disabilities or a health condition.

You can also create a profile, upload your CV and receive email alerts to new and existing jobs held by the service.

Remember, your CV is important as it is often your first opportunity to make a good impression on an employer.
